28th March 2014

Dear Parents/Carers,

As a way of providing your child(ren) with the best opportunity to find out about the Great Fire of London, we have arranged for 'History off the Page' to spend the day with us on Thursday 24th April 2014.

On this day your child will use practical activities and drama to find out what it was like living through the Great Fire. There will also be a storytelling session. During the afternoon, the children will investigate and find out about the specific jobs and family life in 1666. The day finishes with a 'public enquiry', when the children will share their opinions and experiences with each other.

Your child will need a simple costume to help them feel a real part of the day. Please see attached a sheet with a few ideas.

We need a number of parent helpers, so please join us. You will see for yourself the value of the day!

We are asking for a voluntary contribution of £8.00

Many thanks,

Mr Farrant, Miss Madge and Miss Wood
