Dear Parents and Carers

We are very pleased to welcome your children back to school after the Christmas holidays. It seems like such a long time ago!

As you know, it has always been our policy to keep you informed about the academy conversion, despite very little happening for such a long time! However, over the past few weeks, things have raced ahead and I am delighted to tell you that the final legal processes are now taking place and we have an Academy Conversion date of 1st February 2015.

This change will make very little difference to the day-to-day life in school; we will still be called Reculver Church of England Primary School and the children will wear the same school uniform. Our staff will remain the same and our systems and processes will generally remain the same. Most of the changes will be 'behind the scenes' with school leadership and management administrative processes.

The school is one of the first schools to convert to the Multi Academy Trust, which is operated by the Diocese of Canterbury Academies Trust (Aquila). The school is most fortunate to have retained the support and leadership of one of the IEB members, who will now help form the school's governing body. We will be expanding the governing body to include parents/carers and the local community.

I hope that this information is helpful. If you have any urgent questions please contact the school.

Yours faithfully

Jon Fox
Headteacher
