Dear Parents/Carers,

Reading Workshop Information Evening - Wednesday 25th February from 6pm until 8pm

During 'Book Week' we are holding an information evening to give you an insight into how reading is taught at school as well as how you can support your child at home. The evening will begin with an introduction and overview of reading in the new curriculum by Mr Fox and Mrs Ashley-Jones. There will then be workshop sessions that you can sign up to attend, using the table below. These will be lead by our experienced teaching staff.

Mr Fox and Mrs Ashley-Jones will be available throughout the night to answer any questions that you may have, as well as Mrs Cunningham (Inclusion Leader) who will be running a workshop about additional educational needs.

There will be some food available from our school kitchen towards the end of the night for you to sample. Along with the book fair should you wish to purchase any books.

We hope that you will be able to attend, to share in the exciting ways that we are moving, in order to support and teach your child to reach their full potential in reading. Please can all forms be returned by Tuesday 24th February.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Caple and Miss Askham

I/We will be attending The National Curriculum evening on Wednesday 25th February from 6pm until 8pm.
