Dear Parents/Carers,

I am writing to update you on the continuing absence of Mrs Hughes as Ants class teacher. Mrs Hughes continues to be absent for this term, as she is still not well enough to resume her teaching duties. We are pleased that Mrs McCloud has committed to continue working with Ants class until the end of the academic year, in order to provide continuity. However, due to a longstanding holiday booking commitment, she will not be in school for the next fortnight. During this time, Ms Joanne Goodsell will be teaching the class until Mrs McCloud returns.

The year group continue to plan together to ensure consistency of provision across all three classes.

During this term, Miss Fowler will be spending some days working in Ants class, in preparation for her return from maternity leave in Term 6. We look forward to Miss Fowler's return to Reculver, and she is in turn looking forward to meeting the children during this term.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact either myself or Miss Askham, Key Stage 1 Phase Leader.

Yours Sincerely

Jenny Ashley-Jones
